IAYP – INTERNATIONAL AWARD FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

IAYP (International Award for Young People) is an international youth development programme for young people aged 14–25, designed to support their overall personal development beyond academics.

The main objective of the programme is to develop Leadership, Discipline, Confidence, Social Responsibility, Physical Fitness, Teamwork and Life Skills among students.

Four Key Components of IAYP

1. Skills

Students develop a new skill or improve an existing skill according to their interests and abilities.

2. Service

Students participate in meaningful activities that contribute to society and the community.

3. Physical Recreation

Students regularly participate in sports, fitness, yoga or other physical activities to improve physical fitness and discipline.

4. Adventurous Journey

Students participate in adventure-based activities that develop Planning, Teamwork, Leadership, Confidence and Problem-Solving skills.

IAYP Structure- Institution Level

New Institution Licence

An Institution Licence is required to officially introduce and operate the IAYP programme within an institution.

Student Award Levels

Bronze → Silver → Gold

These are the three progressive Award Levels for students, based on their participation, commitment, personal development and completion of the required activities.

Importance for Yashoda Institute Satara

Introducing IAYP at Yashoda Shikshan Sanstha will provide students from different branches with a structured personal development programme integrating:

- Sports & Physical Activities
- NSS & Community Service
- NCC Activities
- Skill Development
- Leadership Activities
- Adventure Activities

Institutional Support Required

Successful implementation of IAYP will require coordination among the Management, Registrar, Principals, IAYP Coordinator, Physical Directors, Sports Staff, Activity Teachers, Language Teachers, NCC Staff and NSS Staff.

Key Objective

“To develop responsible, confident, skilled, physically active and socially committed young individuals through structured activities and meaningful experiences.”

In Short

IAYP = Skills + Service + Physical Recreation + Adventure + Leadership + Personal Development
